Galmont Ballet's NUTCRACKER

THE LONGEST RUNNING NUTCRACKER PRODUCTION IN BREVARD...

28 STAGING YEARS OF FRANK GALVEZ'S "THE NUTCRACKER"

IT COMES TO LIFE FOR THE HOLIDAY SEASON FOR 19th CONSECUTIVE YEARS IN BREVARD COUNTY, AND 15TH CONSECUTIVE YEARS AT OUR RESIDENT HOME VENUE THE HCVP

[ROCKLEDGE, FL, SEPTEMBER 2022] — The Galmont Ballet announced this year's 19th Nutcracker, the longest-running annual production in Brevard County. Founders and Artistic Directors Frank Galvez and Lucia Montero, will present it with four performances on Friday, December 16, 2021, at 7:30PM, Saturday, December 17, 2021 at 2PM and 7:30PM, and Sunday, December 18, 2020 at 2PM, at Galmont Ballet's resident performing venue since 2008 The Historic Cocoa Village Playhouse. Tickets now available to the general public through the theaters box office, and online.

Galmont Ballet's production of "The Nutcracker" is a long-standing holiday tradition and a spark of magic among Nutcrackers. This brisk, witty production balances classical dance, cozy drama and theatrical showmanship in all the right proportions. Thrill to leaping Russians, dancing Snow flakes, and exotic Arabian dancers as a young girl's holiday dream comes to life before your eyes. The beloved holiday ballet tells the timeless tale of a young girl's magical visit to a dreamy Land of Sweets, where she encounters fabulous characters from all over the world, rescues the Nutcracker Soldier from the evil Rat King, and is blessed by the beautiful Sugar Plum Fairy and her Cavalier. From the vibrant Spanish Dance to the familiar Waltz of the Flowers, this year, as always, snow will fall in the Land of Snow scene, and little clowns will accompany our Mother Ginger. This ballet is the perfect gift for boys and girls of any age, with its spell-casting loveliness, its humor, and its athletic wonderment.

Frank Galvez created his own version in 1994, based on the book by E.T.A. Hoffmann, set in the United States of America around the 19th century. Galvez's production portrays a beautiful, old-fashioned Victorian Christmas tree, thrilling battle scene, exquisite sets and costumes including party boys dressed as cowboys, impressive special effects, illusions and magical tricks. Although it is a very lush production, the values of The Nutcracker remain the same, the celebration of family, tradition, and love, so essential to the holiday season. Galvez infused the ballet with a style that expresses the festivity and ambiance of an American Christmas.

“In our 19th consecutive year of presenting this holiday gem, we know the impact that this delightful story has on our community”, says Founder-Director Lucia Montero, “In presenting this year’s production, we celebrate Frank’s vision, and the many generations of dancers whom he has inspired.”

Also, as part of Galmont Ballet’s 20th anniversary season, this year’s production will feature the performance of a number of GB alumni and former students who are returning to share the stage with our new and talented generation and international guest artists in the roles of the Nutcracker Prince and The Cavalier.

Stemming from a decade-long partnership with The Historic Cocoa Village Playhouse and presentation of the longest-running production of The Nutcracker in Brevard county, this merger is the only one in our region and promises to continue creating new and invigorating programs.
