Summer Ballet Gala 2022

Rockledge, FL (March 1, 2022) – On Saturday June 11, 7:30pm, at the Satellite High School Auditorium, Galmont Ballet and Founders-Artistic Directors Frank Galvez and Lucia Montero will present the Galmont Ballet season closing production “Summer Ballet Gala” 2022. This program brings together fantasy, myth, and the physical world. Building on Galmont Ballet’s 19 consecutive years’ traditions of innovation since its beginnings in 2003, the summer production features classical and contemporary ballets; stagings from the classical repertory such as Don Quixote and Le Corsaire pas de deux, The Dying Swan, and re-stagings from Galvez’s choreographic repertory such as Bolero, Encounter pas de deux, Ave Maria, and Forbidden Dreams. The program also includes the participation of guest dancers Josue Justiz and Branden Reiners, artists of the Grand Rapids Ballet, who will share the stage with the Galmont Ballet talented young dancers.

Tickets are $25 p/p, general admission, and may be purchased by calling the Galmont Ballet Office at 321 208 7074, or emailing at info@galmontballet.com. Also tickets available at the door on performance day.

About Galmont Ballet

Galmont Ballet offers a comprehensive ballet curriculum to children 3 years old and up, with performance opportunities in annual ballet productions including the holiday classic The Nutcracker, a Frank Galvez's original production presented annually at The Historic Cocoa Village Playhouse as their Resident Ballet Company. In the Fall of 2008, Galmont Ballet enjoyed its debut as Resident Ballet Company at the beautiful Playhouse representing a significant step forward in the life of the organization and a timeless gift to the audiences who have sustained and supported it since then. Classes are led by Founders Artistic Directors, international Ballet Mistress Coach Lucia Montero and international Ballet Master Choreographer Frank Galvez.
